

Community Nurse

Advise you on how to keep healthy

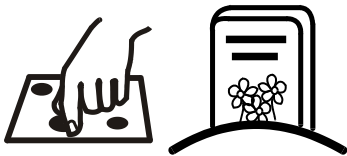

Support you if you have epilepsy

Support you with your medication

Support you if you have dementia

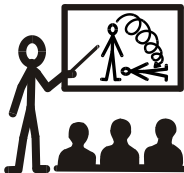

Give you support and help you with choices about end of life

Listen to your health concerns/needs

Give you advice, information and support if you go into hospital and when you leave hospital

Teach people how to support you with:

- Taking your medication
- Epilepsy

Give you information/advice on other health services