1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Trust recognises that its' staff are its most valuable resource and is committed to ensuring that all staff receive an appropriate Corporate and Local Induction upon joining the Trust.
- 1.2 The Learning and Development Team will work with Human Resources staff in order to ensure that all appointing managers and new employees adhere to the policy.

2. PURPOSE & SCOPE

- 2.1 The purpose of the document is to ensure that all appointing managers understand the procedures and their responsibilities in ensuring all new employees attend corporate induction and receive a timely and appropriate local induction. The document will also ensure that all employed staff understand their responsibility in attending and participating in corporate induction and completing their local induction in accordance with the checklist (Appendix A).

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 3.1 The Director of Human Resources and Organisational Development will oversee the monitoring and implementation of this policy to ensure that it is applied throughout the Trust.
- 3.2 The Workforce Governance Group will develop minimum standards in relation to the content of the corporate/local induction programmes in consultation with the Director of Human Resources and Workforce Development. The Group will monitor compliance with this policy and escalate areas of concern to the Regulation Governance Group.
- 3.3 The Human Resources Department (HR) will ensure that the learning and development team are advised of the details of all new recruits.
- 3.4 The Learning and Development Team will coordinate and facilitate the corporate induction programme, following-up non-attendance with Managers and Directors. They will also ensure that all new recruits are booked to attend corporate induction as part of the recruitment process, ensuring that the line manager and new employee are notified accordingly. The Learning & Development department will also maintain and monitor a schedule to identify individuals who do not return the local induction checklist within four weeks of commencing employment.
- 3.5 The Learning and Development Operational Lead is the author of this policy and will ensure that it is reviewed every three years, in line with revised NHSLA RMS minimum requirements.
- 3.6 Line Managers are responsible for ensuring that new staff are released to attend the corporate induction programme and that the local induction checklist is completed and returned to the Learning & Development Department.
- 3.7 All staff, regardless of grade, role or status, permanent, temporary with a fixed term contract, full or part-time, locums and bank staff must attend corporate induction, take part in their local induction and complete the checklist.

4. EXPLANATIONS OF TERMS USED

- 4.1 Corporate Induction – the formal programme of introducing new staff to the Trust
- 4.2 Local Induction – introduction and familiarisation for new staff at the site of employment/work base.
- 4.3 Staff Groups – as identified in the Mandatory Training Matrix (eg, clinical, professional and non-clinical)

5. NEW STAFF INDUCTION

5.1 Induction Procedure

- 5.1.1 The HR Department will undertake pre-employment procedures and advise the Learning & Development Department of all new recruits who will then book all new employees onto corporate induction. New staff are informed of their Induction dates by a welcome email sent to their personal email address. Learning and Development will remind staff of the requirement to attend via a reminder email prior to the dates.
- 5.1.2 All new employees have a responsibility to attend corporate induction, complete their local induction and complete and return the local induction checklist.
- 5.1.3 Line Managers will ensure that all new staff are released to attend corporate induction, that they work with new staff to complete their local induction and complete and return the local induction checklist (section 5.3 below).
- 5.1.4 All new medical staff will attend an Induction event and will attend additional local induction programmes. Medical staff are also required to complete and return the local induction checklist.
- 5.1.5 The Learning and Development Team will work with the Clinical Tutor/Medical Director to ensure that all new medical trainees attend an induction programme within one week of joining the Trust. The minimum standard for the content of these programme(s) is set out by the Clinical Tutor/Medical Director.
- 5.1.6 Induction requirements for temporary/locum medical staff are defined in the Bank, Agency and Locum Policy.

5.2 Corporate Induction

- 5.2.1 Attendees at corporate induction will be required to sign an attendance sheet and attendance will be recorded on the Learning and Development System by the Learning and Development Team once the programme has been completed.
- 5.2.2 If an employee fails to attend the corporate induction programme they have been booked onto, their Line Manager will be informed of the failure to attend by automatic email from Learning Zone. These communications may be copied to the Director of Human Resources and Organisational Development for further action.
- 5.2.3 Staff will not be permitted to undertake desirable training until all the required elements of induction have been completed.
- 5.2.4 The content of the corporate induction programme will be evaluated and reviewed by the Workforce Governance Group and as a minimum will contain the following:
 - Introduction by the Chairman
 - Trust Values

- Operational Services
- Customer Care
- The patient and carer experience
- The NHS Constitution

5.2.5 New employees should attend corporate induction within 3 months of starting employment with the Trust.

5.3 Local Induction

5.3.1 When a provisional start date is arranged, the HR Department will send an email to the line manager of the new member of staff with the local induction checklist attached.

5.3.2 The minimum content of the Trust's Local Induction is completion of the Local Induction checklist (Appendix A), which should be completed within four weeks of the new member of staff's start date with the Trust. This checklist is not exhaustive in content and staff should be made aware of all relevant policies on the internet/intranet.

5.3.3 The local induction checklist (Appendix A) should be completed by the Line Manager and the new member of staff within four weeks of the employees start date. A copy of the completed local induction checklist will be provided to the new member of staff and the Line Manager will send the original to the Learning & Development Department within four weeks of the new employees start date.

5.3.4 The Learning & Development Department will maintain and monitor a schedule which identifies new employees who have not returned a completed local induction checklist after four weeks. Once four weeks have passed, a member of the Learning & Development team will remind the line manager by way of an email or telephone call. If the form is not returned six weeks after the member of staff's start date, it will be escalated to a Senior Member of the Learning & Development Team. Forms not returned eight weeks after the start date are reported to the Head of Training who will inform the Service Manager/Head of Service/Director. Monitoring of this will be undertaken by the Workforce Governance Group and areas of concern will be escalated to the Regulation Governance Group.

5.3.5 Agency staff will complete a local induction checklist (which can be found in the Bank, Agency and Locum Policy) with the nurse in charge before the start of their first shift in a new work base. This checklist should be kept on file on the ward/work base and a copy sent to the HR Department.

6. TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

6.1 The Trust will work towards all staff being appropriately trained in line with the organisation's Mandatory Training Matrix (training needs analysis). All training documents referred to in this policy are accessible to staff within the Learning and Development Section of the Trust Intranet.

7. EQUALITY IMPACT ASSESSMENT

All relevant persons are required to comply with this document and must demonstrate sensitivity and competence in relation to the nine protected characteristics as defined by the Equality Act 2010. In addition, the Trust has identified Learning Disabilities as an additional tenth protected characteristic. If you, or any other groups, believe you are disadvantaged by anything contained in this document please contact the Equality and Diversity Lead who will then actively respond to the enquiry.

8. MONITORING COMPLIANCE AND EFFECTIVENESS

Overall monitoring will be by the Regulation Governance Group who will receive a quarterly report from the Workforce Governance Group who will agree recommendations and action plans.

8.1 Process for Monitoring Compliance

- The Learning and Development Team will monitor and record attendance at Corporate Induction by way of attendance sheets and recording of attendance on the Learning and Development System. Non-attendance will be followed up with Line Managers.
- The HR Department will monitor the completion and return of local induction checklists, following up those not returned after four weeks.
- The Learning and Development Team will provide a quarterly report for consideration at the Workforce Governance Group who will agree recommendations and action plans. Progress and areas of concern will be reported quarterly to the Regulation Governance Group by completing the Regulation Governance Group reporting template.

9. COUNTER FRAUD

- 9.1 The Trust is committed to the NHS Protect Counter Fraud Strategy – to reduce fraud in the NHS to a minimum, keep it at that level and put funds stolen by fraud back into patient care. Therefore, consideration has been given to the inclusion of guidance with regard to the potential for fraud and corruption to occur and what action should be taken in such circumstances during the development of this procedural document.

10. RELEVANT CARE QUALITY COMMISSION (CQC) REGISTRATION STANDARDS

- 10.1 Under the Health and Social Care Act 2008 (Regulated Activities) Regulations 2014 (Part 3), the fundamental standards which inform this procedural document, are set out in the following regulations:

Regulation 8:	General
Regulation 9:	Person-centred care
